THE ALMA MATER

Lyrics: C.J. Fields

Brahms, First Symphony
Fourth Movement

We stand to salute you, The College of New Rochelle;
The campus, the classes that we've come to know so well.
We treasure your past which none have surpassed,
Your banner the white and blue.
Oh, hail New Rochelle for the gifts that will bless us
Now and forever.

For our Alma Mater, so proudly we sing in praise.
She stands as a beacon to light all our future days.
The truths we have shared, with friends who have cared,
The values we've learned to revere.
Oh, hail New Rochelle for the gifts that will bless us
Now and forever.

THE COLLEGE OF NEW ROCHELLE

SCHOOL OF NEW RESOURCES

DC-37 CAMPUS
HOODING CEREMONY

MONDAY, MAY 16, 2011
6:00 p.m.

PROGRAM

PROCESSIONAL

INVOCATION
Helen Wolf
Director, Campus Ministry

DIRECTOR'S WELCOME
Patrice Gouveia-Marks
Campus Director

GREETINGS
Elza Dinwiddie-Boyd
Dean, School of New Resources

Dorothy A. Escribano
Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs

Judith Huntington
President-elect

PRESIDENTIAL GREETINGS
Stephen J. Sweeny
President of the College

MUSICAL INTERLUDE
Thelma Ithier-Sterling

INTRODUCTION TO HOODING

PRESENTATION OF THE GRADUATES
Patrice Gouveia-Marks

Stephen Greenfeld
Assistant Campus Director

Nibaldo Aguilera, David Brunt, & Paul Tyrl
Instructional Staff

INTRODUCTION OF STUDENT SPEAKER
Patrice Gouveia-Marks

STUDENT REMARKS
Richard Hardt III '11

ALUMNAE/I SALUTE
Carolyn Brown '95
Assistant Director, Alumnae/i Relations

REMARKS
Lillian Roberts
Executive Director of District Council 37

Cliff Koppelman
President Local 1070, Acting President District Council 37

Santos Crespo
President of Local 372

Barbara Kairson
District Council 37 Education Fund Administrator

BENEDICTION
Marian Williams '10

THE ALMA MATER
Helen Wolf

RECESSIONAL

Reception Immediately Following in Lobby Lounge