The College of New Rochelle was founded in 1904 by the Ursuline Order as the first Catholic college for women in New York State. Today, the College serves a student population of more than 7,000 students. In addition to the School of Arts and Sciences, which remains all-women, the College has three co-educational schools: the Graduate School, established in 1969; the School of New Resources, in 1972; and the School of Nursing, in 1976. The College’s main campus is in New Rochelle, with six branch campuses of the School of New Resources located throughout the New York metropolitan area.

The College’s primary purpose is the intellectual development of persons through the maintenance of the highest standards of academic excellence and educational growth. From this tradition, the College derives its dedication to the education of women and men in the liberal arts and its professional studies. The College reaches out to those who have not previously had access to higher education and places particular emphasis on the concept of lifelong learning.

Private support allows the College to build upon its commitment and mission as an educational institution by providing academic scholarships, grants, financial aid, and technology enhancements. Similarly, funding is needed for physical plant renovations, special programs, and curriculum development.

Gifts to the College include cash, appreciated securities, capital donations, real estate, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, endowed funds, and bequests.

When The College of New Rochelle is included in estate plans through a planned gift or a bequest, thoughtful donors reduce their taxes, protect their assets, and generate income. By reaching beyond their own lives to assure opportunities for future generations, generous donors shape the future and make a critical difference in the College’s ability to fulfill its mission.

Generosity — An American Tradition.

When 19th Century French politician Alexis de Tocqueville visited the United States to study our democracy, so impressed was he by the philanthropic spirit of Americans, that his celebrated writings, published worldwide in all major languages, extolled the uniqueness of our generosity.

That generosity is fostered by our nation’s lawmakers, and is public policy, reflected in our tax laws. Thanks to Congress, it actually pays to be generous. Since 1917, Congress has passed laws encouraging taxpayers to support nonprofit organizations, by providing for the reduction, deferral or elimination of income, capital gains and gift or estate tax. Just a few of the goals you can accomplish through tax-wise charitable giving include:

- increasing the spendable income from appreciated investments, without incurring any capital gains tax
- providing for the special health or education needs of a dependent relative
- supplementing the income from a pension or retirement plan
- reducing the taxes on assets you wish to pass on to family members
- generating extra income from non-income-producing assets
- increasing the amount your loved ones will inherit

The valuable and sometimes extraordinary tax benefits available to the average taxpayer are, unfortunately, given little attention by most legal and tax advisors, who have limited experience with IRS-approved charitable giving strategies in their daily practices.

CNR can be a valuable resource for you in your financial and estate planning. Free, confidential assistance is available to you and your legal and tax advisors, from the Office of College Advancement. Please contact:

As President, in my responsibilities to you and to those who will come after us at The College of New Rochelle, I find myself often telling the story of the College to friends and potential friends in corporate, foundation and government circles. It is a great privilege.

In a recent visit to one of the nation’s best known and most prestigious charitable foundations, I found the tables turned. In the very first minutes of the visit, the foundation vice president told me of the admiration in which the College is held by the officers and staff of this particular foundation because the College has successfully found the way through changing times to preserve the integrity of the Catholic liberal arts college for women by combining its century-old values and approach with vital and even more relevant outreach to new populations.

The compliment itself made me so very proud! Coming as it did from such an engaged and influential source encouraged me enormously that the gift to the world which is The College of New Rochelle has an ever expanding circle of fans who appreciate the spectacular achievements of the College over its entire history but particularly its adaptations of the last 35 years!

After 102 years as a Catholic liberal arts college for women, we value our rich history, but at the same time, dream even bigger dreams for our beloved College’s future. Every year I look forward to writing this special letter to you—our valued alumnae/i and dear friends of the College—that sums up our recent accomplishments and directs our attention to the coming year, filled with both challenges that we will embrace and opportunities that we will welcome. This is a precious time for all of us as we think warmly about our College and our hearts fill with hope as we greet new students who, like those before them, are about to follow the most rewarding path that life can offer, through The College of New Rochelle.

RITE OF PASSAGE
Whether our students come to us at the traditional age or as adults with families and careers, the college experience is a turning point in their lives. Graduating from college, at 22 or 72, is a threshold moment when all things seem possible. And how wonderful and amazing have been the lives of our graduates. We take great satisfaction and a parental pride in their successes, knowing that their gifts were recognized here at The College of New Rochelle, fostered and developed, and then our graduates went forth to benefit the world at large.

A RIPPLE ON WATER
To stretch out metaphors further, we might say that the college experience is like the oft-referenced pebble tossed onto the water, and the ripples that roll away from the center are our students who have graduated and gone out to make a difference in the lives of others.

And then, of course, the ripples inevitably return and the waves come back to the center, and those sons and daughters return to the source that motivated them.

Last spring, at our annual Alumnae/i College weekend, I had the pleasure—I might say, I had the privilege—to sit and talk with Edith Greene O’Hara, Class of 1930, whose connection to CNR is linked directly to Mother Irene Gill.
Edith’s mother attended the Ursuline Academy in New York City and her father, John Greene, traveled with Mother Irene to New Rochelle in 1896 when Mother Irene went in search of property for a women’s seminary and found Leland Castle where she established, as you well know, the first Catholic college for women in New York State.

At the luncheon, Edith O’Hara had many wonderful stories to tell of those early days of CNR. I hope you have the opportunity to read about her in the last issue of Quarterly and to see how she is still connected to this College after all these years.

As president, one of my true pleasures is to meet such graduates as Edith, now well into her 90s, whose life reflects so positively our values and the education that we provided. These graduates encompass the young and not so young, women and men of all socioeconomic backgrounds from across our four Schools.

The education we provide is no small responsibility, as I tell our faculty and staff each fall at the opening of the school year. It is a great obligation that we have to the students who partner with us today to complete their education.

I tell the College community that ours is a sacred calling, and what we do daily on the New Rochelle campus, and all our city campuses, has profoundly significant consequences. How many of you today, years after your time here, can recall with fondness and deep emotion one or the other of your former teachers, remember that moment where your life was changed because of some class you took from this professor, some piece of information or insight you learned? Or perhaps it was during a late night (or all night!) intense conversation about the meaning of life with a college roommate that caused an epiphany that altered the direction of your life.

So, we do not take lightly our responsibility. Not the administration or faculty or staff, from those of us who change the light bulbs to those who mark the grades. All of us in this community of learning are united in a common purpose, whether on the main campus in New Rochelle or one of our city campuses in Greater New York.

EXPANDING COMMUNITY THROUGH COMMUNICATION

I am struck so forcibly, when sending out an email to the College community here in New Rochelle and to our city campuses in Brooklyn, the Bronx, and Manhattan, by the degree to which we are all closely connected in the most elementary ways.

The Internet has given me the opportunity to instantly be in touch with everyone employed and enrolled at The College of New Rochelle. One click and we are connected. The Internet has also given us the opportunity to communicate with you most directly. The Alumnae/i Office now has an online community. You can keep in touch with former classmates and network for your own professional development. We have also recently created CNR Report, a monthly electronic newsletter of information about the College, to keep you informed of what is happening on campus.
What that means is that perhaps we are at the edge of what I might call a University in Dispersion—a physical campus in Greater New York, of course, as well as one that stretches around the world. Thus, through the gift of technology, wherever graduates go, they are never far from home. I ask that you keep in touch, share with us your world and your ideas. We can both benefit from this continual dialogue as, working together, the family and friends of CNR, we shape our mutual future.

HOW OTHERS SEE US

In telling people from beyond our community about who we are, I describe that we are a college of six campuses, almost seven thousand students, and a work force of five hundred. Invariably I’m asked: What do you think is your greatest challenge?

Strangers guess, of course, that I will talk of fundraising and the expense of keeping the College financially healthy. But in truth it isn’t fundraising that is most challenging. We have wonderful alumnae/i and friends that support our College, and we know we can continue to count on you.

It’s a great gift that we have, that we can gather together so many human beings in a college of diverse programs, geography, fiscal challenges—because we’re still largely tuition driven—and above all have the palpable sense of community. We work hard at building that community—not simply being in one another’s company, but working together to achieve very lofty purposes on behalf of a society that entrusts to us the privilege to conduct an educational institution. Here is what I mean.

THE SECRET IS OUT

I had a pleasant surprise this summer. In a package that came to my office was a new book: Old Main: Small Colleges in Twenty-First Century America by Samuel Schuman.

For a moment I wasn’t sure who had sent me the book or why I had received it, but then I remembered Samuel Schuman. He is the chancellor of the University of Minnesota’s Morris campus, and he came to the College several years ago and asked if he could use CNR as a case study for his book on small liberal arts colleges. Of course we agreed.
I am happy to say that he has done us justice. We are in the wonderful company of eleven other fine institutions—Grinnell College and Morehouse College among them, along with the only other women’s college that he profiles, Wellesley.

I recommend this book to you because I think Samuel Schuman “gets it.” He “gets” the world of the small, liberal arts college. He “gets” the richness of interaction of faculty in a small college, of relationships with students, of very different priorities in small colleges, of the priority of teaching, and of the care that goes into teaching. The aspirations of our students are more often than not different than the aspiration of students who go off to the large state universities and research institutions.

THE HALLS OF IVY
Samuel Schuman’s book got me thinking of a program of my pre-teen years called “The Halls of Ivy.” It was on the radio and briefly on television in the early ’50s. “The Halls of Ivy” followed the daily life of a college president, Dr. William Todhunter Hall, at a fictitious midwest college.

It was a program full of intelligence, humanity, and wit as President Hall solves a variety of problems that surface daily on a college campus.

I recall one episode about a star football player dropping the sport so he could concentrate on becoming an “A” student, much to the dismay of the coach. Another show concerned the building of a new physical fitness center. Is that an example of art imitating life?

Again what brought that old radio show to mind was Samuel Schuman’s book, Old Main. It got me thinking about the true value of small colleges as they once were depicted on radio and television years ago. While I am not nostalgic for the “way it was,” those bucolic days of the forties and fifties, I am prejudiced in favor of the academic environment small schools provide, campuses that permit an intimate community, an educational experience which offers students stimulating creative and critical thinking, in a manageable world.

Recently one of our freshmen, Maria Loja, made the comment that she came to CNR because the small setting makes her feel very secure. By that she meant not only the physical security she feels on campus, but also the family atmosphere she finds, the shared commitment to education, the shared values—in short, the closeness of community. The reason, of course, is that our College is more than lawns and stone, more than five city campuses with our anchor here in New Rochelle.

There is a sundial in the Rose Garden behind the Castle that many of you may recall. In fact, a lovely photograph of it was on the cover of the Summer 2005 issue of Quarterly. The sundial indicates not only the passing of the day and the change of seasons, but also the directions of earth. For us, of course, our sense of direction must come from the principal commitments that drive us—a commitment to our Catholic heritage, to women, to the liberal arts, and to community out of diversity. These are the values that we hold dear and that continue to engage us now, in our 102nd year as College.
THE FACE OF CNR
I close this letter in gratitude that, after 102 years as Catholic liberal arts college for women, we are stronger than ever. How gratifying that the achievement of the last 35 years in moving this great treasure forward with a renewed relevance is recognized in ever expanding circles. How much I realize that this has been accomplished in partnership with so many generous alumnae/i and friends! I trust that you will look to us, too, for encouragement and support, and we ask that you continue your prayers for the work we do for today's students, and tomorrow's—especially at this significant moment in the life of the College when we embark on the building of our wonderful Wellness Center, the first new construction on the campus of CNR in forty years.

I ask that in your conversations with your extended families and many friends, you tell the story of the College and encourage the young people (and not so young!) to think of CNR as the college for their future.

The College of New Rochelle, I know, means a great deal to you. And now, wherever we may be in the world, we are never without the connection of shared values and beliefs, and, in this new age, remember, we are only a click away from being in touch (www.cnr.edu).

Thank you for your friendship and support.

The School of Nursing celebrates an enrollment boon for the 2004-05 academic year, announcing that total SN enrollment has increased 33% since 2000-01; the freshmen class in the four year undergraduate program is one of the largest in the school’s history; the accelerated baccalaureate program for those holding degrees in other fields has attracted a 50% higher response than expected this year; and the percentage of men pursuing undergraduate and master’s degrees at CNR has doubled, increasing from 3% in 1994 to 6% in 2004.

Dr. Richard Thompson, who most recently served as Dean of Child and Family Studies at Wheelock College in Boston, is appointed the new Dean of the College’s School of Arts and Sciences.

SAS Art Professor Cristina de Gennaro is awarded a fellowship for an artist residency at the Jentel Artist Residency Program in Banner, Wyoming, and spends a month there researching and creating new art work.

The Graduate School Gerontology Program is one of the nine non-profit organizations awarded funds derived from the sale of the Colburn Memorial Home, a former senior citizen residence in New Rochelle. The check is presented to CNR President Stephen Sweeny (second row, far left) and the other recipients by Colburn Board member Mary Jane Reddington ’45 (seated first row, second from right) during an afternoon reception held in Leland Castle Parlors.

Dr. Amy Bass, Assistant Professor of History and Director of the Honors Program in the School of Arts & Sciences, who is on-site at the Summer 2005 Olympic Games in Athens supervising the Research Room for NBC’s entire broadcast, provides daily behind-the-scenes updates for a special section on the CNR website.

Hundreds of CNR alumnæ/i and friends enjoy a celebratory weekend in New York City as the College officially concludes its Centennial Year celebration with a dinner dance at the Grand Hyatt in Manhattan and a liturgy at St. Patrick’s Cathedral, celebrated by New York Archbishop Edward Cardinal Egan.

To mark the Centennial of the College, both the landmark Empire State Building and Con Edison Tower on Irving Place are lit in blue and white.

The School of Arts & Sciences introduces a Student-Faculty Research Program, in which students undertake research projects with a faculty mentor. Two students participate, conducting research on eugenics and the impact of non-native earthworms on eastern deciduous forests. Pictured are SAS Biology Professor Dr. Lynn Petrullo and Blanca Paccha, who conducted research on eugenics.

SNR Instructional Staff Member Dr. Maria Zubritski of the Rosa Parks Campus publishes The Professor and His Muse, an allegory of comment and invention about an adjunct professor who daydreams while correcting his students’ papers.
October

The School of New Resources receives a $15,000 grant from the Verizon Foundation to create the Access Center Gateway Program at the SNR John Cardinal O’Connor Campus. The funds will be used for a technological literacy and ESL (English as a Second Language) program for Latino adults who reside near the JOC Campus on 149th Street.

Four CNR students are recognized for their outstanding community service by the Ursuline Institute with the bestowal of its annual Serviam Awards. CNR President Stephen Sweeny poses with awardees, (l-r): Matilda Lloyd, SNR; Kathryn Tyanski, SAS; Cristiane Morejon, GS; and Natasha Ramgahan, SN.

“Reflections on Blessings,” featuring work by artist Sonia Barnett, opens at the Gordon Parks Gallery at the SNR John Cardinal O’Connor Campus.

Three GS faculty members lead workshops at the 40th annual conference of the Westchester Association for the Education of Young Children (WAEYC). Dr. Timothy Ebsworth and Dr. Gail Verdi of the Multilingual/Multicultural Education Program speak on how writing may be used to help develop strong literacy skills early in life, while Dr. Constance Iervolino of the Education Program discusses the importance of building learning communities and maximizing collaboration with schools.

Over 100 CNR alumnae/i and friends spend a beautiful autumn day golfing and playing tennis at Wykagyl Country Club in New Rochelle as part of the Third Annual CNR Golf & Tennis Outing.
Nearly 2,000 audience members – both young and old – enjoy CNR Drama’s revival of the musical comedy You’re a Good Man, Charlie Brown, which had a successful first run at CNR in summer 2003.

CNR President Stephen Sweeny is honored by the Huguenot & New Rochelle Historical Association, an organization dedicated to preserving the history of the City of New Rochelle. Above: Dr. Sweeny with Norman Herzberg, President of the Historical Association.

School of Nursing students once again do their part to promote healthy lifestyles and wellness among students, faculty, and staff at the Main Campus during Healthy Campus (an event to be repeated for the Harlem community when Healthy Campus is held at the SNR Rosa Parks Campus in April).

Patricia Bennett SN’98, PACT Team Psychiatric RN, Care-Plus New Jersey (pictured center with SAS Professor Cynthia Kraman and SN Professor Dorothy Larkin), shares some of her sources of inspiration with students and their families during the Honors Convocation, held during Family Weekend. The convocation is held annually to recognize the outstanding achievements of Dean’s List and Honors List students in the School of Arts & Sciences and School of Nursing.

As part of the Library of Congress’ Veterans History Project, under the guidance of SAS Education Professor Dr. Linda Swerdlow, SAS students and local middle school students interview local Vietnam veterans to hear recollections of that war.

More than 1,400 visitors enjoy the Castle Gallery’s “Black Madonna” exhibit during its two-month run. The exhibit combines both the historic aspect of the significant figure of the Black Madonna with modern-day renditions. Running concurrently with the Castle Gallery exhibit, “Return of the Crèche: Nativity Scenes from Around the World,” featuring more than a dozen unique crèches from a collection compiled by alumna Eileen Canty and her husband, Jim, is displayed in Leland Castle Parlors.

Holy Family Chapel is the beautiful setting for performances of the classic Christmas opera Amahl & the Night Visitors, presented by CNR Drama.

SN Professor Dr. Anne Duval Frost discusses entrepreneurship in community-based health promotion, as well as “Crash Course,” a program she developed for middle school and high school students that emphasizes interventions for alcohol toxicity, during two seminars given as part of a Nursing Leadership Forum at the University of Virginia School of Nursing in Charlottesville.
JANUARY

The College Community celebrates the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord with a Mass, followed by a brunch in Maura Hall.

Approximately 20 students from the School of Arts & Sciences and School of Nursing spend a portion of their Intersession break performing community service as part of an International Plunge in Matamoros, Mexico and Brownsville, Texas, both mission sites of the Ursulines, and as part of an Urban Plunge at Hale House in New York City. In Matamoros, students help construct a house for an impoverished family, while in Brownsville, they educate residents on major health issues, and at Hale House, they help care for young children who reside there.

SNR Instructional Staff Member Dr. Barbara Adams of the Rosa Parks Campus is among the contributors to the recently published 2005 Encyclopedia of Black Studies.

Dr. Joan Bailey, Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs, publishes a chapter on the mission of the College in the book Lay Leaders in Catholic Higher Education: An Emerging Paradigm for the Twenty-First Century.

Campus Ministry invites students, faculty, and staff to celebrate the feast day of St. Angela Merici during a traditional festival of food, music, photos, and games, which also features peer minister Melissa Gormley SAS’07 playing the part of St. Angela.
In honor of Black History Month, the School of New Resources hosts a discussion and book signing for From Brotherhood to Manhood, written by renowned author Dr. Anderson J. Franklin. During the discussion at the Rosa Parks Campus, Dr. Franklin encourages African American men, saying “Manhood is a commitment of leadership and responsibility to community and family.”

GS Professor Dr. Kenneth Doka co-edits his 18th book, Living with Grief: Ethical Dilemmas at the End-of-Life, another book in the Living with Grief series published by the Hospice Foundation of America.

SAS Social Work Professor Dr. Judy Gordon publishes a chapter on “Global Perspectives on Women’s Rights” in the textbook Teaching International Content: Curriculum Resources for Social Work Education.

School of Nursing freshman and Blue Angel athlete Ruth Collura is named to the All Conference Swim Team for the Hudson Valley Women’s Athletic Conference.

A series of events are held in Celebration of Women’s History Month. The Dowell Lecture, endowed by Dr. George B. Dowell, in memory of his sister, Elvira M. Dowell ’36, features producer and director Faye Lederman (pictured), who speaks on documentary film production and distribution. Later in the month, a panel of women representing different nationalities from the Even Start Family Literacy Program share their experiences of emigration and acculturation experiences in the U.S., and noted Kenyan artist Wangechi Mutu discusses her work.

Gill Library is awarded a $26,000 grant from The H.W. Wilson Foundation to acquire and install Docutek ERes, a turnkey system for Electronic Reserves. The grant furthers CNR’s strategic institutional plan to enhance the technological resources and services for students in the college’s four schools.
The Castle Gallery concludes the year’s exhibit schedule with the opening of “From Venice to Vegas,” featuring circus memorabilia and rare artifacts from the private collection of renowned clown Earl Chaney.

More than a hundred students, faculty, and staff from the Main Campus and the five SNR city campuses participate in the second annual CNR Community Service Day coordinated by Campus Ministry, fanning out across New Rochelle and New York City to serve at 21 project sites.

As part of its participation in the Westchester Consortium for International Studies, the College hosts the annual President’s Lecture by noted author and speaker Colman McCarthy.

More than 1,300 women and men receive their degrees from CNR President Stephen Sweeney during the 98th Commencement Exercises, held at Radio City Music Hall, while honorary degrees are bestowed on award-winning actress Cicely Tyson and husband and wife Tim Russert, Senior Vice President and Washington Bureau Chief for NBC News (pictured), and Maureen Orth, Special Correspondent for Vanity Fair, who also deliver the commencement address to graduates.

The College holds the 33rd annual Strawberry Festival, featuring fun-filled outdoor activities, including musical performances and student performances ranging from cheerleading to belly dancing to one-minute Hamlet by CNR Drama (pictured), as well as a vast array of refreshments, including chocolate-covered strawberries, strawberry shortcake, hamburgers, and popcorn.
To help them in acquiring the necessary language facility and cultural awareness for their future careers as social workers and educators, a group of SAS social work students spend eight days in Oaxaca, Mexico as part of the Bridging Cultures program. During their stay, the students study language, visit community homes, and conduct a service-learning project at a local school for children with special needs. Upon their return, during the summer and fall 2005 semesters, they will meet to discuss and process their experiences, compile journals, prepare reflection assignments and research papers on themes of their choice, and make presentations drawn from their service learning activities.

Gill Library Dean Dr. James T. Schleifer, an internationally recognized expert on Alexis de Tocqueville, spends much of the month in Japan, where he is invited as a Visiting Fellow of the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science. While there, he gives a paper on the contemporary American interpretations of Tocqueville’s Democracy in America at a major international conference at the University of Tokyo and lectures at Japanese universities in Sapporo, Kyoto, and Tokyo.

During Women's World 2005: Ninth International Interdisciplinary Congress on Women held in Korea, SNR Dean Elza Dinwiddie-Boyd presents the results of the School of New Resources’ research on women’s lifelong learning needs, conducted as part of the School’s participation in a four-country study project sponsored by the Japanese Ministry of Education’s National Women’s Education Center.

SAS Religious Studies Professor Dr. Elisabeth Brinkmann, RSCJ, and SN Professor Dr. Lynda Shand represent the College at the summer colloquy of Collegium, a joint effort by Catholic colleges and universities to recruit and develop faculty who can articulate and enhance the spiritual and intellectual life of their institutions, and come away from the experience greatly enriched.

DEAR GRADUATES AND FRIENDS,

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, I express my gratitude to the 4,308 donors who gave $5.1 million to the College: graduates, faculty and staff of all four schools, friends, foundations and corporations, all of whom make supporting CNR one of their philanthropic priorities.

In summary and with thanks to all:

- the Annual Fund received a total of $1,694,000, with $1,068,000 of that total received from 408 members of The President’s Circle;
- the Third Annual Golf and Tennis Outing grossed $71,000 for the Annual Fund;
- $2,568,000 in capital gifts and pledges were received from 32 graduates and friends and two corporations; and
- endowment and other annual restricted gifts totaled $876,000.

I would like to extend a very special thank you to all members of the CNR family who contributed to the Annual Fund for the first time. I encourage you to continue participating in the life of the College in many ways, including the support you have provided this year through the Annual Fund, the most essential component of our fundraising activities.

I am also pleased to report that because of your important support to both the Annual Fund and the Capital Campaign, we have been able to close the silent phase of our multi-year Campaign for The College of New Rochelle and officially kick off the public phase in September 2005. With support from you and thousands of others, we are at $33.5 million toward our $50 million goal.

The success of this Campaign will ensure that the College continues to flourish, providing rigorous education to a diverse community of students who find common cause with our free exchange of ideas, central focus on values, and spirit of giving back to society.

With your continued help, we will go on providing transformative education well into our next century.

Sincerely,

Christine LaSala SAS ’72
Chair, Development Committee, Board of Trustees
Co-chair, The Campaign for The College of New Rochelle

EXTRAORDINARY GIVING

We proudly list all individuals, corporations and foundations who have made cumulative gifts of $100,000 or more to The College of New Rochelle. It is with gratitude that we acknowledge this distinguished group of graduates and friends. This public expression of admiration is a small token of our deepest appreciation for the exceptional gifts they have shared with the College throughout the years.

THE CAMPAIGN FOR THE COLLEGE OF NEW ROCHELLE

$33.5 million raised as campaign goes public

The College of New Rochelle is breaking new ground in education with a $25 million holistic Wellness Center to serve students, faculty, and the greater campus community. Through the construction of the Center, CNR will reframe its approach to health and well-being, bring that knowledge into the community, and have a vital impact on the healthcare crisis in America.

The Wellness Center is part of a $50 million capital initiative — “The Campaign for The College of New Rochelle” — implemented to strengthen financial resources in order for CNR to continue to fulfill its mission. The Campaign is designed to enable everyone to participate, via the Annual Fund. Also included in this Campaign, in addition to donations to the Wellness Center construction and programs, are gifts to restore Holy Family Chapel and to strengthen CNR’s Endowment Fund.

Our heartfelt appreciation is extended to each of the following exceptional donors to The Campaign for The College of New Rochelle.

THE PRESIDENT’S CIRCLE
Leadership for the Second Century

The President’s Circle is an Annual Fund gift club established in 1966 that recognizes those alumnae/i, parents, faculty and friends of The College of New Rochelle whose leadership giving provides more than 70% of the unrestricted Annual Fund dollars raised from individuals. President’s Circle membership is extended to donors whose combined unrestricted giving to the Annual Fund totals $1,000 by June 30 each year. Six levels of distinction exist within The President’s Circle. Membership is also extended to those individuals who have given a cumulative lifetime total of $100,000 or more to The College of New Rochelle.

The College extends profound thanks to the following 408 donors for their generous gifts to the Annual Fund totaling $1,068,000 for fiscal year 2005.

MAKING A COMMEMORATIVE GIFT

To make a commemorative gift, send your check to:
The College of New Rochelle, Annual Fund, 29 Castle Place, New Rochelle, NY 10805.
For a memorial gift, include the name(s) of the person(s) being remembered and the name(s) of the person(s), if any, who should be notified of the gift.

For an honor gift, include the name(s) of the person(s) honored; if appropriate, the occasion upon which they are honored and their address(es).

The College of New Rochelle sends an attractive card to those honored, or to the families of those memorialized, informing them of your gift.

2005 ANNUAL REPORT / THE COLLEGE OF NEW ROCHELLE
GOLF and TENNIS OUTING

More than $71,000 was raised at the September 2004 event held to benefit CNR students. Many thanks to committee chairs Florence “Beau” Lang Erbe SAS ’57, and Dolores Castellano King SAS ‘61, and to committee members Noel Caraccio SAS ’73, Nancy Maxwell Girling SAS ’80, Joan McInemey Hallowell SAS ’61, Jane Murphy McGrath SAS ’64, Richard McGrath, Martha Reddington SAS ’76, Camille Romita SNR ’75, GRS ’88, and Fred Sullo.

2004-2005 SCHOLARSHIPS

The College of New Rochelle recognizes academic achievement through a variety of scholarships. The College also offers awards to students who have contributed their time and energy to community and volunteer services.
The College of New Rochelle is deeply grateful to the following graduates and friends who have made plans to benefit future generations of students. As members of The Heritage Society, they have thoughtfully included the College in their estate plans through a planned gift or bequest.

The College of New Rochelle was founded in 1904 by the Ursuline Order as the first Catholic college for women in New York State. Today, the College serves a student population of more than 7,000 students. In addition to the School of Arts and Sciences, which remains all-women, the College has three co-educational schools: the Graduate School, established in 1969; the School of New Resources, in 1972; and the School of Nursing, in 1976. The College's main campus is in New Rochelle, with six branch campuses of the School of New Resources located throughout the New York metropolitan area.

The College offers strong reasons for seeking private support. The importance of the life of the spirit and a reverence for the individual are hallmarks of an Ursuline value-based education. These characteristics are manifest in a College of New Rochelle education today. The College's primary purpose is the intellectual development of persons through the maintenance of the highest standards of academic excellence and educational growth. From this tradition, the College derives its dedication to the education of women and men in the liberal arts and in professional studies. The College reaches out to those who have not previously had access to higher education and places particular emphasis on the concept of lifelong learning.

Private support allows the College to build upon its commitment and mission as an educational institution by providing academic scholarships, grants, financial aid, and technology enhancements. Similarly, funding is needed for physical plant renovations, special programs, and curriculum development.

Gifts to the College include cash, appreciated securities, capital donations, real estate, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, endowed funds, and bequests.

When The College of New Rochelle is included in estate plans through a planned gift or a bequest, thoughtful donors reduce their taxes, protect their assets, and generate income. By reaching beyond their own lives to assure opportunities for future generations, generous donors shape the future and make a critical difference in the College's ability to fulfill its mission.

For additional information about making a gift to The College of New Rochelle, please call the Office of College Advancement at (800) 474-4232. Or you can email us at makeagift@cnr.edu.

Generosity — An American Tradition.

When 19th Century French politician Alexis de Tocqueville visited the United States to study our democracy, so impressed was he by the philanthropic spirit of Americans, that his celebrated writings, published worldwide in all major languages, extolled the uniqueness of our generosity.

That generosity is fostered by our nation's lawmakers, and is public policy, reflected in our tax laws. Thanks to Congress, it actually pays to be generous. Since 1917, Congress has passed laws encouraging taxpayers to support nonprofit organizations, by providing for the reduction, deferral or elimination of income, capital gains and gift or estate tax. Just a few of the goals you can accomplish through tax-wise charitable giving include:

- increasing the spendable income from appreciated investments, without incurring any capital gains tax
- providing for the special health or education needs of a dependent relative
- supplementing the income from a pension or retirement plan
- reducing the taxes on assets you wish to pass on to family members
- generating extra income from non-income-producing assets
- increasing the amount your loved ones will inherit

The valuable and sometimes extraordinary tax benefits available to the average taxpayer are, unfortunately, given little attention by most legal and tax advisors, who have limited experience with IRS-approved charitable giving strategies in their daily practices.

CNR can be a valuable resource for you in your financial and estate planning. Free, confidential assistance is available to you and your legal and tax advisors, from the Office of College Advancement. Please contact:
