The College of New Rochelle was founded in 1904 by the Ursuline Order as the first Catholic college for women in New York State. Today, the College serves a student population of more than 7,000 students. In addition to the School of Arts and Sciences, which remains all-women, the College has three co-educational schools: the Graduate School, established in 1969; the School of New Resources, in 1972; and the School of Nursing, in 1976. The College’s main campus is in New Rochelle, with six branch campuses of the School of New Resources located throughout the New York metropolitan area.

The College’s primary purpose is the intellectual development of persons through the maintenance of the highest standards of academic excellence and educational growth. The College’s primary purpose is the intellectual development of persons through the maintenance of the highest standards of academic excellence and educational growth. From this tradition, the College derives its dedication to the education of women and men in the liberal arts and in professional studies. The College reaches out to those who have not previously had access to higher education and places particular emphasis on the concept of lifelong learning.

Private support allows the College to build upon its commitment and mission as an educational institution by providing academic scholarships, grants, financial aid, and technology enhancements. Similarly, funding is needed for physical plant renovations, special programs, and curriculum development.

Gifts to the College include cash, appreciated securities, capital donations, real estate, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, endowed funds, and bequests.

When The College of New Rochelle is included in estate plans through a planned gift or a bequest, thoughtful donors reduce their taxes, protect their assets, and generate income. By reaching beyond their own lives to assure opportunities for future generations, generous donors shape the future and make a critical difference in the College’s ability to fulfill its mission.
Students in front of Holy Family Chapel on the Main Campus
In the days immediately before the opening of school this September, Westchester County, and particularly New Rochelle, was hit with a violent windstorm, the aftermath of Tropical Storm Ernesto that swept through the Northeast. The campus, thankfully, experienced only minor damage with a scattering of broken branches. This sudden storm, however, reminded us of the gift we have of such a lovely setting for the College, acres of lawns filled with spectacular flowers, shrubs and trees. What a beautiful setting for a university community. (Continued on page 4)
This “hidden treasure,” as visitors often phrase it, is the result to a large degree of the dedicated work of a long line of individuals passionate about the beauty of the campus. Right now, and for many years, the grounds have been in the expert hands of the indomitable Leonard Toterhi. Before him came the gifted Sister Irene Sosnowska, a Polish exile who found God in these lovely grounds and kept them so beautiful so all of us would too. Through Lenny, Sister Irene and untold Ursulines and lay gardeners over these 103 years, our students have been given a lovely, shady campus that is both safe and sacred, a place for contemplation, learning and prayer. We are truly blessed by the gift of this campus. But each of our campuses, all six, have that same wonderful feeling of sanctuary and welcome. At the five New York City campuses, the character is urban, of course, but still students find an atmosphere congenial to share in the “life of the mind and the life of compassion,” which is our purpose.

“How is it possible,” people often ask me, “to hold it all together, the College, that is, with its six campuses, almost 7,000 students, undergraduate and graduate and such diversity of age, geographical background, ethnic and racial and socio-economic background?” The answer comes so easily: our faithfulness to mission unifies us. And I believe that mission is more needed and relevant than ever, the mission of the Catholic women’s college, which The College of New Rochelle pursues with such vigor now in its 103rd year.

With great relish, I am ever eager to speak of what we believe are our essential mission elements: a special commitment to the education of women; the primacy of the liberal arts; providing the space for faith and reason to journey together informed by the rich Catholic intellectual, moral, social justice tradition; and our commitment to model community drawn from diversity. The richness behind each of these “non-negotiable” elements deserves more space than permitted me here. But I assure you, give me just the slightest opening and I’m all too happy to explicate each one. For now, as we review another year, let me assure you that it is the vitality of this mission that still, 103 years later, “holds it all together.”
... our faithfulness to mission unifies us. And I believe that mission is more needed and relevant than ever, the mission of the Catholic women’s college, which The College of New Rochelle pursues with such vigor now in its 103rd year.

XAVIER UNIVERSITY OF NEW ORLEANS
This year, we celebrated our 99th Commencement in a special CNR way, by stopping to remember our brothers and sisters who suffered through the devastation of Hurricane Katrina, and especially our sister college in New Orleans, Xavier University, the nation’s only Catholic black college.

Like CNR, Xavier started as a small liberal arts college founded by Catholic nuns in 1915 to provide college degrees to a population excluded from higher education. Today it is the number one college in the nation in the number of African American undergraduates receiving degrees in Biology and the life sciences and the Doctor of Pharmacy degree.

Our College’s Board of Trustees and I invited Xavier’s President, Dr. Norman Francis, to receive an honorary degree at Commencement and to give the Commencement address. And the Class of 2006 gave their graduation gift to help Xavier University rebuild. We encouraged the entire CNR Community to donate to Xavier University and help them rebuild this historic Catholic college in New Orleans. I am happy—and proud—to say the CNR family responded enthusiastically to my request and were overwhelming in their generosity.

LOVE OF LEARNING
A principal resource in the implementation of our mission is the faculty. We are truly blessed to have an extraordinary faculty on all our campuses.

Recently I read a comment made by Pulitzer Prize-winning New York Times columnist, Thomas L. Friedman, author of the recent best seller The World is Flat. Friedman remarked that when he advises young students on what to study to prepare them for the future “flattening” of the globe, he tells them to seek out the very best teachers and take whatever courses they are teaching.

“I don’t remember much of what I was taught in school,” Friedman says today, “but I do remember the great teachers I had as a student. It is from great teachers that I gained my love of learning.” Tom Friedman knows that wisdom for life begins with a “love of learning” inspired by great teachers.

This “love of learning,” as well you know, flourishes at The College of New Rochelle. Many of you can recall a CNR professor who sparked your imagination and perhaps changed your life. We are still gifted with a faculty that brings the intense love of their subject matter into the classrooms and daily engages and influences new generations of students.
REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

Significant and exciting work is being accomplished today by many faculty members in many parts of the world. And all of this knowledge and experience is then brought back to the classrooms at all six of our campuses.

While we often do not have the opportunity to witness those transformative moments in a classroom when insight, comprehension and the transfer of knowledge take place, we can agree that these epiphany moments don’t just happen. They are the joy and consequence of a faculty deeply engaged in research and studies, and effectively skilled in teaching and learning methodology.

CNR FACULTY AT HOME IN THE WORLD

Academic institutions are often accused of being disconnected from the world. Nothing could be further from the truth about the faculty of The College of New Rochelle. Significant and exciting work is being accomplished today by many faculty members in many parts of the world. And all of this knowledge and experience is then brought back to the classrooms at all six of our campuses.

In 2002 our School of New Resources Dean Elza Dinwiddie-Boyd was asked by the Japanese Ministry of Education to be part of a joint international research project involving four nations: Norway, Korea, Japan, and the United States. The focus of this study was lifelong learning for adults. Because of our innovative School of New Resources for adult learners, Dean Dinwiddie-Boyd was asked to share with the participating countries CNR’s successful approach to providing the college experience for adult learners which she did in a presentation last summer entitled, “African-American Women, Empowerment, Lifelong Learning and the School of New Resources’ Non-traditional Model.”

Also representing our College in Japan in the summer of 2005 was Dr. James T. Schleifer, Dean of Gill Library. Dr. Schleifer is an internationally recognized scholar on Alexis de Tocqueville, and 2005 was the 200th anniversary of the birth of Tocqueville. Dr. Schleifer was invited to be a Visiting Fellow of the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science. While in Japan he also gave a paper on the contemporary American interpretations of Tocqueville’s Democracy in America at the University of Tokyo and lectured at universities in Sapporo, Kyoto and Tokyo.

Our presence in the Far East was again in evidence in late October when the Director of Campus Ministry, Helen Wolf, participated in a symposium held at Wenzao Ursuline College of Languages in Kaohsiung, Taiwan. The conference focused on the issue of globalization and how future leaders must center their efforts on global responsibility. Eighty-six student leaders from twenty-three universities and eight different countries, including two students from The College of New Rochelle, met to discuss issues of global concerns.

More recently and closer to home, Dr. Kenneth Doka, Professor of Gerontology in the Graduate School, was one of twenty-five participants from nine different nations who met in Hawaii in November to discuss issues regarding the remains of those missing in military action in Vietnam. Invited by the United States Department of Defense, Dr. Doka spoke to representatives from India, Israel, Vietnam, China, Russia, South Korea, Laos, and Japan on the importance of the return of physical remains in western culture.
While the scholarship of our faculty goes well beyond the classroom, it is not always in the form of lectures and presentations. Often, in fact, it is hands-on and life-giving work.

Dr. Connie Vance in our School of Nursing is conducting a community health promotion program in Honduras, a program sponsored by Hope for a Healthier Humanity, The Catholic University of Honduras, and the Pan American Catholic Health Care Network. Several faculty and students in the School of Nursing are also serving as advisors to this project.

In Africa this past summer was James Allen, a member of the Instructional Staff of the School of New Resources Brooklyn Campus. Professor Allen traveled to the Nile Basin to work with scholars from Nigeria, Kenya, Tanzania, Botswana, the Caribbean and the United States to investigate and document Nile Valley civilizations at the source of the Nile River.

The creative work that is characteristic of CNR’s faculty is not only evident at the micro level (i.e., within classes, workshops and clinics), but it is also evident at the macro level. Dr. Amy Bass, Honors Program Director and Assistant Professor of History in the School of Arts and Sciences, has been actively involved with the production of NBC’s telecasts of the last five Olympics. This winter she traveled to Turin, Italy to supervise NBC’s 30-member Winter Olympics Research Team.

In 1906, the Dramatic Society’s first production, Tennyson’s Princess, was performed on the lawn behind the Castle, a production directed by the legendary Frances E. Fay, Professor of Elocution at CNR for many years. In 1916, the Dramatic Society was re-named Props and Paint and recently the name was changed once again to the more inclusive and descriptive CNR Drama.

Whatever the name, drama at CNR has brought entertainment, laughter, and education to performers and audiences for a century as Shakespearean, Greek, French, and historical dramas were staged on our campus lawns and Chidwick’s third-floor stage, in Maura and Brescia living rooms and Romita Auditorium, and for many years in an annual mid-year performance on a New York City theater stage.

In the 1960’s a custom of performing a children’s play began. Award-winning actress Mercedes Ruehl’s characterization of Captain Hook in Peter Pan led some little ones to weep in terror at her great skill and authenticity. This tradition of children’s plays continues to this day. This past summer CNR Drama presented Cinderella to the delight of children from the surrounding community.

Many CNR students have crossed the stage through the years and many have taken their talent and skills and continued to perform years after leaving our stage. Several of our graduates have gone on to professional careers, among them are Hilda Thackeray ’08, Beatrice Warren ’13, and Ally Dwyer Vergara ’24, Emelise Aleandri ’65, Wendy Lesniak ’66, and Diana Bracho ’67, who stars today in Mexican telenovelas, stage, and films, Myra Turley ’68, Edwardyne Cowan ’90, and, of course, the Academy and Tony award-winning Mercedes Ruehl ‘69.

STUDENTS WHO PARTNER WITH US

While CNR’s faculty reaches across borders to educate and work in the world, students from around the world come to CNR for their advanced education. CNR does not actively recruit students from overseas, but international students learn about the unique college opportunity that the College provides, and we are so very pleased that they seek us out and bring to the College their diverse backgrounds.

Last year, Ailsa Friel of Ireland, a fine arts exchange student from the University of Ulster in Belfast, North Ireland, spent a year on our New Rochelle campus studying business in the School of Arts & Sciences and completed her course work for her undergraduate degree.

Also coming from overseas to CNR last year was Jee Hee Yoon of Seoul, South Korea. An International Studies major, Jee Hee will graduate from the School of Arts & Sciences in 2009. Jee Hee, who has the American nickname of Kathy, runs on the College’s cross country team and works part-time in our Admissions Office.

Other foreign students who have studied recently at one of the six campuses came from such diverse nations as Eritrea, Ghana, Bulgaria, Romania, Ecuador, China, Trinidad, St. Lucia, Jamaica, many of the Caribbean islands, and from our own commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

STUDENTS OF SERVICE

Every fall on Founder’s Day The College of New Rochelle recognizes and honors the recipients of the Serviam Awards, presented by The Ursuline Institute. We are so very proud to have such outstanding students on our campuses.
This past year Bethany Bellino of the School of Nursing was acknowledged for her many volunteer activities including doing community service work at the Boys & Girls Club of New Rochelle and Hale House in New York City. Bethany has also helped raise funds for the College service projects in Matamoros, Mexico, as well as volunteering at the Preble Street soup kitchen for the homeless in Portland, Maine, her hometown.

School of Arts & Sciences student Julia Geronimo also worked at Hale House, chaired the “Take Back the Night” event which addressed issues of violence against women, and participated in an outreach project at the Doyle Senior Citizens Center.

SAS senior Nancy Hicks was deeply involved with the Campus Ministry Midnight Runs. She also fundraised for March of Dimes events and served as Vice-President of the Black Student Union and as Secretary of the Social Work Club.

Rebecca Greene of the School of New Resources worked extensively with her church and Rotary International, through which she assisted in job fairs and health/wellness programs, and fed the homeless at Thanksgiving.

STUDENTS OF ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Last year three students of our Honors Program attended the 2005 National Collegiate Honors Council’s annual conference in St. Louis, Missouri: Sara Weigand SAS’08, Kathryn Tyranski SAS’06, and Elizabeth Skrip SAS’06. At this prestigious national event, these CNR students presented their own research to faculty and students from across the United States.

Blanca Paccha SAS’08, was awarded a National Institutes of Health Undergraduate Scholarship for the 2006-2007 academic year. As part of the award, she will also work in an NIH lab next summer. Blanca is also one of 15 recipients to receive a scholarship from the Connecticut Association of Latinos in Higher Education for the coming academic year.
Another outstanding science student, Megan Skrip SAS’07 received a Greater Research Opportunities Student Fellowship this year from the United States Environmental Protection Agency, one of just 37 students selected to receive tuition support as well as a monthly stipend for her research projects on the environment. She will have the opportunity to work on an EPA-funded internship in the United States.

REMEMBERING SPECIAL FRIENDS
With the joy that each year at CNR brings, we also have the sorrow of losing special friends. This year, we lost two such individuals – Rosa Parks and Gordon Parks. In October 2005, Rosa Parks, a seamstress whose destiny was to be the great icon of the civil rights movement in America, passed away quietly in her sleep in Detroit, Michigan. Rosa Parks gifted us in 1987 by permitting The College of New Rochelle to name the School of New Resources Harlem Campus in her honor. It was our privilege at that time to bestow upon her the College's Pope John XXIII Medal as well as an honorary degree.

In 1997, she deservedly became one of the first recipients of the College's Woman of Achievement Award. We are immensely proud and humbled to have had the opportunity to name a campus of The College of New Rochelle after this legendary figure of American history.

A great supporter of the School of New Resources, Gordon Parks, passed away last March. A true renaissance man, Gordon Parks, through a variety of artistic media, most particularly photography, confronted us with the human story at the deepest level. In 1991 we established in his honor the Gordon Parks Gallery at the John Cardinal O’Connor Campus in the South Bronx. This Gallery provides opportunities for established and emerging artists to exhibit their work and to serve as an important cultural resource for students, alumnae/i, faculty and staff of the College and residents of the New York City communities.

How grateful we are to have had these special people as part of our College Community. We mourn their loss and celebrate their lives.

Wellness Center—the first new building on campus in four decades.

Our ambitious plans for the Wellness Center reflect the College’s long-held dual commitment—to our individual students as well as to the society in which we live. We will create a state-of-the-art facility and continue the development and expansion of the College-wide wellness curriculum, which is already part of the course of studies and programming within the School of Nursing.

This June, we moved beyond the planning stage when we broke ground for this exciting new project. And as the foundation of the Wellness Center is laid, a physical representation of the vitality of the College truly takes shape.

LOOKING FORWARD

In the coming year, we expect to celebrate a number of milestones. Next year’s Commencement will mark our 100th graduating class. From our first class of eight young women in 1908 to a class of women and men from all walks of life numbering in the thousands, we have advanced far, while remaining true to our mission.

We will also commemorate a very special anniversary - the 150th of the centerpiece of our main campus, Leland Castle. In 1857, Simeon Leland established his residence in New Rochelle, in a Gothic revival style castle he built for himself and his family. Over these 150 years, Simeon Leland’s castle has sheltered and welcomed a vast and intriguing array of residents and visitors—from the hotelman’s family and visiting Chinese merchants to New York’s “Four Hundred” and a fox hunting club under the ownership of Adrian Iselin, to an Ursuline convent and boarding school, the “cradle” of our College.

ANGELA IN MOTION

With this annual letter, I realize, I can only give kaleidoscopic pictures of many events that have taken place this year at the College. I have only told you of a portion of the scholarly achievements of our faculty and students. So I invite you to return to campus this year and share in our many special events, celebrations and new beginnings in the months ahead. I invite you especially to look for news of the opening next year of the Wellness Center as we continue our glorious journey under God’s unreserved munificence.
In May more than 150 people attended a reception to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the Castle Gallery. The event was held in Leland Castle Parlors, beautifully decorated with exhibit posters, programs and postcards that spanned the Gallery’s 25 years of giving to the College and the community art, and through art, education.

By showing creative work that crosses the lines into other disciplines such as science, history, and women’s studies, the Gallery had brightened and educated the minds of thousands of visitors, from adolescents to octogenarians, those who might not otherwise have had the opportunity to experience the magic of art in so many creative ways.

I began this report acknowledging the gift of the beauty and welcome of our campuses – the bucolic New Rochelle campus and the warmth and welcome and vibrance of our urban settings in New York City. Let me in conclusion dwell on one rather recent addition to our New Rochelle landscape. I pass it every day a number of times and I hope never to get so used to it that I miss its profound meaning for us. I am speaking of our 10-foot bronze statue of St. Angela Merici, foundress of the Ursulines.

Situated on Castle Place between Chidwick and the Castle, “St. Angela” was commissioned for our Centennial celebration. Artist Margaret Beaudette, Sister of Charity of New York, depicts Angela as a woman in motion, obviously pushing ahead on a journey, carrying a pilgrim’s staff. Particularly dramatic is the position of Angela’s feet, one foot ahead of the other in determined movement, and the outstretched arm inviting those who would to move ahead with her. The overall effect is of Angela as dynamic leader of pilgrimage, beckoning all to join her with this inclusive wave of her hand. And this was Angela – dynamic pilgrim leader described on the statue’s pedestal in the words of the Chronicler of her home city of Brescia: “She taught far and wide the faith of the most high God and everyone loved her.”

For 103 years, in the privileged work of higher education, The College of New Rochelle has accepted Angela’s invitation to join her on pilgrimage. Our faithfulness to this mission keeps us responsive to her special charism and, in turn, to society’s needs. This happens because of the passion and generosity of so many CNR family and friends who also have joined Angela’s pilgrim march.

To all of you, our deepest gratitude.

Sincerely,

Stephen J. Sweeney, Ph.D.

Construction has begun on The College of New Rochelle’s new $28 million holistic Wellness Center to serve students, faculty and the greater campus community. Through this vital facility, CNR will reframe its approach to health and well-being, bring that knowledge into the community and have a vital impact on the healthcare crisis in America.

The Wellness Center is part of a $50 million capital initiative – “The Campaign for The College of New Rochelle” – implemented to strengthen financial resources in order for CNR to continue to fulfill its mission. The Campaign is designed to enable everyone to participate, via the Annual Fund. Also included in this Campaign, in addition to donations to the Wellness Center construction and programs, are gifts to restore Holy Family Chapel and to strengthen CNR’s Endowment Fund.

Our heartfelt appreciation is extended to each of the following exceptional donors to “The Campaign for The College of New Rochelle:”

THE PRESIDENT’S CIRCLE
Leadership for the Second Century

The President’s Circle is an Annual Fund gift club established in 1966 that recognizes those alumnae/i, parents, faculty and friends of The College of New Rochelle whose leadership giving provides more than 70% of the unrestricted Annual Fund dollars raised from individuals. President’s Circle membership is extended to donors whose combined unrestricted giving to the Annual Fund totals $1,000 by June 30 each year. Six levels of distinction exist within The President’s Circle. Membership is also extended to those individuals who have given a cumulative lifetime total of $100,000 or more to The College of New Rochelle.

The College extends profound thanks to the following 409 donors for their generous gifts to the Annual Fund totaling $1,067,000 for fiscal year 2006.

LETTER FROM
BOARD OF TRUSTEES DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

DEAR GRADUATES AND FRIENDS,

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, I express my thanks to the 4,409 donors who gave $6.8 million to the College. Graduates of all four Schools, faculty and staff, friends, foundations, and corporations, along with a number of significant bequests, helped to make 2006 the third best fund-raising year in CNR history.

I am pleased to report:

- the unrestricted Annual Fund reached $1,850,000, with $1,067,000 given by 409 members of The President’s Circle;
- the fourth annual Golf and Tennis Outing grossed $88,000 for the Annual Fund;
- $2,726,000 in new capital gifts and pledges were received from 41 graduates and friends;
- endowment and other annual restricted gifts totaled $1,276,000; and
- a new record was established for estate gifts – $2.2 million.

I extend a very special thank you to all members of the CNR family who contributed to the Annual Fund for the first time, over 400, many of whom were graduates of the School of New Resources. I encourage each of you to continue your vital partnership with the College as a donor and a volunteer. Each gift, each act of support on behalf of CNR, strengthens our mission.

With $37.6 million achieved for both the Annual Fund and the Capital Campaign, we are closer to our overall Campaign goal. Construction of the Wellness Center, the first new building on the New Rochelle campus in forty years, is well underway. Excavation moves along rapidly, and concrete is being poured before the cold weather arrives. We anticipate opening the doors to this wonderful facility in late 2007. Please visit the College’s website to see updated construction progress.

The success of The Campaign for The College of New Rochelle will ensure that CNR continues to flourish, providing rigorous education to a diverse community of students who find common cause with our free exchange of ideas, central focus on values, and spirit of giving back to society.

Thank you for the generosity and commitment so apparent in this report. This support and the confidence it demonstrates helps assure a solid future for The College of New Rochelle.

Sincerely,

Christine LaSala SAS ’72
Chair, Development Committee, Board of Trustees
Co-chair, The Campaign for The College of New Rochelle
The College of New Rochelle was founded in 1904 by the Ursuline Order as the first Catholic college for women in New York State. Today, the College serves a student population of more than 7,000 students. In addition to the School of Arts and Sciences, which remains all-women, the College has three co-educational schools: the Graduate School, established in 1969; the School of New Resources, in 1972; and the School of Nursing, in 1976. The College’s main campus is in New Rochelle, with six branch campuses of the School of New Resources located throughout the New York metropolitan area.

The College offers strong reasons for seeking private support. The importance of the life of the spirit and a reverence for the individual are hallmarks of an Ursuline values-based education. These characteristics are manifest in a College of New Rochelle education today. The College’s primary purpose is the intellectual development of persons through the maintenance of the highest standards of academic excellence and educational growth. From this tradition, the College derives its dedication to the education of women and men in the liberal arts and in professional studies. The College reaches out to those who have not previously had access to higher education and places particular emphasis on the concept of lifelong learning.

Private support allows the College to build upon its commitment and mission as an educational institution by providing academic scholarships, grants, financial aid, and technology enhancements. Similarly, funding is needed for physical plant renovations, special programs, and curriculum development.

Gifts to the College include cash, appreciated securities, capital donations, real estate, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, endowed funds, and bequests.

When The College of New Rochelle is included in estate plans through a planned gift or a bequest, thoughtful donors reduce their taxes, protect their assets, and generate income. By reaching beyond their own lives to assure opportunities for future generations, generous donors shape the future and make a critical difference in the College’s ability to fulfill its mission.

The College’s primary purpose is the intellectual development of persons through the maintenance of the highest standards of academic excellence and educational growth.
